

TWICE YOURS

I am Yours twice
First by Your creation
Then by Your cross sacrifice
Let me see how involved You were in both events that gave me life

I now live with the consequences of Your intentions
Love conceived
Hope for what I could become
Faith would and will make the difference

Day by day my spirit is becoming transformed
My intentions are now to absorb Your Heart
I am seeing more clearly the needs of those through Your Eyes
I want my empty hands to touch broken hearts and imprisoned spirits

You breathed life, now I live
You humbled yourself to live and die, now I die to live
You surrendered Your Son, now I surrender all to You
The Father God is my God, so twice, thank you, thank you!
